

Start of Work 20 January 2025

As part of the Moorebank Intermodal Precinct project, the Moorebank Avenue Realignment works will start from 20 January 2025.

Project contractor, BMD, will commence work for the Moorebank Avenue Realignment Works (MARW).

MARW involves the realignment of an existing two kilometre section of Moorebank Avenue, from approximately 130 metres south of the existing Anzac Road/Moorebank Avenue intersection to immediately north of the East Hills Railway. This will be constructed as a new two lane road, east of the existing Moorebank East Precinct, and is expected to have minimal impact on existing traffic arrangements.

What to expect

On Monday 20 January 2024, weather permitting, there will be changes within Moorebank Intermodal Precinct.

Work will involve:

- Establish temporary construction compound and site utilities
- Establish temporary fencing and exclusion zones and demarcation of work site
- Traffic management measures such as safety barriers and signage
- Temporary environmental safeguards such as erosion, sediment, and water quality controls
- Site investigation
- Adjustment and relocation of utilities.

This work will take place within the Moorebank Intermodal Precinct, with no impact to road users. We will require the use of light vehicles, excavators, rollers, bobcat, compaction equipment, bogie trucks and heavy vehicles.

We apologise for any inconvenience this may cause.
