

Moorebank Intermodal Precinct (MIP) is one of Australia's most significant industrial hubs, set to transform national supply chains by shifting freight from road to rail, reducing costs, cutting emissions, and improving delivery efficiency.

Kmart Group joins Moorebank Intermodal Precinct

Last month Moorebank Intermodal Precinct partners joined NSW Deputy Premier and Minister for Western Sydney Prue Car, along with Kmart and Target CEO John Gualtieri, to announce that Kmart Group will establish a new 100,000 sqm Omnichannel Fulfilment Centre at the Precinct.

Set to open in mid-2027, this state-of-the-art facility will support Kmart Group's national growth by enabling faster delivery times, more efficient inventory management, and a seamless customer experience across both online and in-store channels.

We're proud to welcome Kmart Group to Moorebank Intermodal Precinct and to play a role in building the next generation of Australian retail supply chains.

Moorebank Avenue Realignment Smoking Ceremony

On 29 May, we welcomed Raymond Weatherill from the Metropolitan Local Aboriginal Land Council to the Precinct to lead a smoking ceremony marking the commencement of works on the Moorebank Avenue Realignment. This meaningful practice is believed to have both physical and spiritual cleansing properties - warding off bad spirits and protecting those who walk and work on the land.

The Moorebank Avenue Realignment project is scheduled to be on-going for approximately 18 months. Once complete, the realigned road will streamline traffic management and improve safety for motorists, cyclists and pedestrians.
